

PIANORAMA 2025

Parent & Student Letter

Welcome, parents and students! The Nashville Area Music Teachers Association invites you to participate in Pianorama 2025: "Pianorama: Masterworks Edition" Pianorama is an exciting opportunity for students to perform piano duets in an ensemble setting.

Esther Tupper, esteemed conductor, educator, and multi-instrumentalist will be conducting for Pianorama 2025. We are excited she is joining us!

Reserve the weekend of November 21st, 22nd, and 23rd.

Rehearsals are Friday, November 21st and Saturday, November 22nd. The Pianorama concert is Sunday, November 23rd at 2:00 p.m. Attendance is mandatory in both Friday and Saturday rehearsals in order to perform on the concert on Sunday.

Registration with your teacher is September 15 through October 15. The teacher will notify participants of their rehearsal time for both Friday and Saturday rehearsals. Official rehearsal schedules will be released once registration closes. Allow approximately one hour each day on campus.

Registration Fee: $40 per participant (student, parent, family member, or friend). Registration fees are non-refundable. Your teacher will assign you to a color group.

Sunday Concert Admission: $5.00 per person for non-performers. There is no charge for pre-school age and under. Concert tickets (open seating) may be purchased online and in-person during rehearsals and on Sunday. Proceeds benefit the Young Artist Achievement Awards.

Pianorama 2025 rehearsals and concert will be at Lipscomb University, Collins Alumni Auditorium. Visit www.Lipscomb.edu for campus map and parking.
